Argument in Favor of Measure DD

MAF
By: [REDACTED] Officer
DEPUTY CLERK

Preschool for All in South San Francisco. Vote YES on DD!

A) South San Francisco's existing preschool programs are universally praised as valuable resources for families. However, they are very expensive for families raising young children, and there's not enough space to serve every child. In fact, there is a consistent 4-year waitlist of 700 families for the City's public preschool programs. That means many parents with young children must choose between their career or paying more than $1,500 a month, per child, for private preschool.

B) Further, preschool teachers and staff are currently not paid a living wage, leading to a shortage of teachers and caregivers for children in our city.

C) Studies show that attending preschool improves school performance, leads to higher graduation rates, higher incomes later in life, and lowers incarceration rates. The South San Francisco Childcare Master Plan states that for every $1 we invest in preschool we receive $8.60 in societal benefits.

VOTE YES ON MEASURE DD TO PROVIDE EVERY CHILD IN SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO
THE FUTURE THEY DESERVE!

Measure DD will:

- 1) Expand preschool programs to guarantee free, high-quality preschool for every child in South San Francisco;
- 2) Provide a living wage to preschool teachers and staff;
- 3) Help our local economy by allowing more parents to develop their careers and have more disposable income;
- 4) NOT raise taxes on homeowners or small businesses. Only taxes large corporate office buildings.

PLEASE JOIN our endorsers (see full list at www.ece4allssf.org): Childcare teachers and providers with AFSCME Local 829 and UDW/CCPU; American Federation of Teachers Local 1493; San Mateo County NAACP; Peninsula Young Democrats; and over 5,700 South San Francisco residents who petitioned to place this measure on the ballot AND VOTE YES ON DD!
